

2ND ANNUAL CONFERENCE

CLINICAL RESEARCH IN INDIA -- TRANSLATING RHETORIC TO REALITY

TAJ LANDS END, MUMBAI

10 - 13 JANUARY, 2009

Post-Conference Workshop - 13 January, 2009 (Tuesday)

“Implementing Six Sigma in Clinical Research”

Introduction: All over the world including India, Organizations have been implementing Six Sigma to improve business results, claiming that Six-Sigma implementation has resulted in huge savings within few years of implementation. This news has made all the CEOs interested in implementing Six Sigma. However, everybody has not achieved success.

Coverage:

- What is Six Sigma – An overview
- DMAIC and DFSS model
- Strategy for Implementation
- Issues in Six Sigma Implementation
- Case study from Pharmaceutical Industry
- Question and Answer session

Benefits for participants:

Understanding the implementation model will help in:

- Implementing Six Sigma across your company
- Using tools for improving processes

Coordinator : Deven Parmar

Faculty:

1) Mr. Ashok Sarkar, Sr. Specialist in the SQC & OR Unit of the Indian Statistical Institute, Mumbai.

2) Mr. Sagar Sikder, B. Tech., ME in Production Engineering.
Faculty Member at Indian Statistical Institute.

3) Specialist from Pharmaceutical / Medical field.

Scope of the workshop:

Extremely useful for those in clinical research operations, QA/QC, Data Management, Bio-Statistics, Medical Writing.

Who should attend :

Academia, Biostatisticians, CROs, Clinical R&D, Clinical Trials, Study Monitoring, and Project Management personnel; Clinical Data Management, Investigators/Site Management, QA / Compliance, Regulatory/Medical/Scientific Affairs personnel.

Programme : SEE BELOW

Post – Conference Workshop - Jan 13th, 2009 (Tuesday)

“Implementing Six Sigma in Clinical Research”

PROGRAMME

TIME	TOPIC	SPEAKER
09:00 am – 10:30 am	Basic Introduction: Six Sigma	Ashok Sarkar
10:30 am – 11:00 am TEA BREAK
11:00 am – 12:30 pm	Six Sigma & CR - Issues & Solutions	Ashok Sarkar Dr Deven Parmar Dr S Sapatnekar
12:30 pm – 01:30 pm LUNCH
01:30 pm – 03:00 pm	CASE STUDIES in Six Sigma	Dr Harish Nadkarni Dr S Sapatnekar Dr Deven Parmar
03:00 pm – 03:30 pm TEA BREAK
03: 30 pm – 04:30 pm	IMPLEMENTATION ISSUES	Ashok Sarkar
04:30 pm – 05:00 pm	Open Discussions	ALL